Course Overview

This course offers a comprehensive and interactive refresher on AML (Anti Money Laundering) and CFT (Combating the Financing of Terrorism) and is aimed at directors and senior management of financial services businesses in Guernsey.

Content

The course will be interactive by way of exercises/case studies and will advise, or remind you of your obligations as Board members to ensure compliance with the following areas of financial crime matters:

- The act of money laundering and how an offence is constituted under the legislation
- Terrorist financing, Proliferation financing and the differences between that and money laundering
- Suspicion, suspicious transaction reports and tipping off
- Client risk
- Communication from the FIU (THEMIS) to the Board (monthly)

- Sanctions
- Board responsibilities and duties including the communication from the Head of FIU on internal policies and procedures regarding the quality of SARs filed to the FIU
- Risk rating
- Compliance function

Benefits

After attending this course you will have a greater understanding of AML/CFT controls which, when effectively implemented, can mitigate the adverse effects of criminal economic activities.
