Course Tutor

Wayne Atkinson

Wayne works with a broad range of regulated entities and investment funds on fundraising, transaction and investment structuring, commercial contracts and mergers and acquisitions. As one of the leaders of Collas Crill's risk and regulatory team he also regularly advises businesses on regulatory compliance including money-laundering issues, listing rules requirements, competition law, data protection, ESG matters and Guernsey financial services regulation more generally. Wayne regularly advises and speaks on the subject of regulation or reputation when it comes to the motivation behind socially-responsible investing around the world. He is well known for his down-to-earth plain speaking approach to explaining complex legal and regulatory issues.
