Course Tutor

Richard Field

Richard is the current Chair of the Guernsey Association of Compliance Officers and regularly works with businesses on compliance and technology matters, including liaising with local authorities in relation to industry issues. As an Advocate, his regulatory focus is on data protection (including cyber), AML and compliance, technology and eGaming. Richard has acted for a range of local and global institutions on complex, cross-border disputes involving funds, banking and investment relationships and trusts. Many of the cases he has worked on involve fraud, asset-tracing and applications for injunctive relief, or regulatory issues (such as enforcement, AML, bribery or sanctions), often resulting in ground-breaking judgments.
