Course Tutor

Tim Tyler

Tim has, over the last eight years developed and delivered training to thousands of compliance professionals across the world. In November 2023 he took up the role as Vice President of the ICA, with particular responsibility for Europe, Africa and the Americas. Prior to joining the ICA Tim was AML Lead at the GB Gambling Commission, responsible for all aspects of AML regulatory and supervisory activity. This was preceded by thirty years in UK Law Enforcement spanning the police and National Crime Agency. During this time he led a number of functions including the NCA Proceeds of Crime Operational Command and the UK International Crime Bureau, responsible for criminal and fugitive enquiries transacted between the UK and the rest of the world. Countering the threat of financial crime has been a recurrent theme throughout Tim's career. He established money laundering investigation teams across the UK and in strategic locations around the world. He developed innovative tactics to counter the threat with many domestic and international partners including the Serious Fraud Office, the FBI, and DEA and national agencies in Spain, Italy and Australia.
