Dealing with Challenging People

Course Details

Price

£325.00

Length

Full day (09:30-16:00)

Course Overview

There will always be some people that you find more challenging to deal with; this workshop will provide you with a new awareness of your own skills, and some new tools and techniques for interacting with challenging customers and/or colleagues. Delegates will leave understanding why some people are more challenging than others and know how to manage them before they impact on mental and emotional well-being.

Content

In this workshop, delegates will cover:

- The importance of excellent communication skills when dealing with challenging people
- Emotional intelligence and personal empathy levels; how to change your personal mindset so that you can interact with others in a more peaceful and effective manner.

- Managing emotions and the skills needed to help deal with challenging people.
- Understanding and managing different kinds of challenging people

Benefits

Delegates will understand and be better equipped to deal with a range of challenging personalities, managing them in a professional manner whilst building healthy relationships – resulting in improved daily interactions and better emotional wellbeing.
