Course Overview

As AI rapidly reshapes the business landscape, board members will be moving beyond awareness and focus on strategic utilisation, workforce transformation, and ethical leadership.

This forward-thinking session explores how 'Autonomous AI Agents' can enhance productivity, streamline decision-making, and drive efficiency, while also addressing the challenges of upskilling staff and managing workforce transitions in an era of increasing office automation.

We will discuss the latest regulatory updates, emerging AI trends as we move into 2026 and beyond, and the ethical considerations when considering the phasing in of Autonomous AI Agents.

Flexible learning that works for you
