Effective Workload Management

Course Details

Price

£215.00

Length

Half day (09:30-12:30)

Course Overview

This half-day course introduces practical, realistic strategies to help delegates manage their workload while maintaining a wellbeing-first mindset.

Drawing on a coaching-led approach, the course will support delegates to prioritise effectively, protect their focus, set healthy boundaries, and communicate with confidence.

Delegates will also explore how to build resilience and manage stress in challenging situations.

Content

The course will cover the following topics:

- Wellbeing-first mindset - exploring how a wellbeing-centred approach strengthens resilience and supports sustainable performance
- Prioritisation and focus techniques - simple, practical methods to manage workload and reduce overwhelm

- Boundaries and communication - strategies for setting clear boundaries and communicating effectively with managers and colleagues
- Stress-management tools - quick, accessible techniques to stay steady and grounded on difficult days

Benefits

The course will help delegates develop a balanced, sustainable approach to managing their workload, leaving with practical tools to reduce stress, protect their wellbeing, and approach workplace challenges with greater clarity and confidence.

Prerequisites

Assessment

Assessment for this course will be informal; methods will include discussion, group activities, and self-reflection.
