Course Overview

The insurance sector faces growing exposure to money laundering, fraud, and financial crime. With a highly intensive and complex legislative period ahead, regulatory expectations have never been higher.

This course equips you with the knowledge and skills to:

- Build insurance-specific AML knowledge - Go beyond generic AML training with content tailored to the real risks and scenarios you encounter in your role, including life, general, reinsurance, and intermediary arrangements.
- Develop regulatory confidence - Understand the legal and regulatory framework that governs your firm, from the international standards such as FATF and the EU through to the national legislation and sector-specific obligations that apply to the insurance sector.
- Apply practical skills immediately - Learn to recognise red flags in customer behaviour, payment patterns, and third-party involvement, and understand your reporting and escalation obligations in real insurance contexts.

Flexible learning that works for you

- Navigate sanctions and financial crime overlaps - Understand your sanctions obligations and the relationship between fraud and money laundering, two areas that frequently intersect in the insurance sector.
- Support a strong compliance culture - Every role has a responsibility, from underwriting and claims to customer services and broker management. This course ensures you know when and how to act.

Content

- Money laundering fundamentals - Understand what money laundering is, how it works, the three-stage model, and the role of the insurance sector within the wider AML ecosystem.
- Terrorist financing, proliferation financing and sanctions - Explore how these threats operate, how insurance products can be exploited, and the key sanctions regimes you need to understand.
- International AML frameworks - From the UN and FATF to EU Directives and national legislation, gain clarity on the global and UK regulatory landscape and what it means for insurance firms.
- Vulnerabilities across financial services and insurance - Examine how the insurance sector is specifically exploited, across life, general, reinsurance, and intermediary arrangements, and what makes it attractive to money launderers.
- Risk-based approach and customer due diligence - Develop your understanding of CDD in insurance contexts, including underwriting, policy administration, and claims management, and know when to apply simplified or enhanced due diligence.
- Suspicious activity detection and reporting - Recognise the red flags specific to insurance, understand your legal obligations to report, and know how to handle tipping-off risks.
- AML programme management and compliance culture - Understand board and senior management obligations, AML policies and procedures, and how to build AML awareness across insurance distribution networks.
