Course Overview

This course will visit all aspects of a money laundering compliance officer's (MLCO's) role, responsibilities and duties in a financial services business in Guernsey.

The course will examine the AML/CFT (anti money laundering and combating the financing of terrorism) framework in Guernsey and look at the regulatory frameworks in place. It will also look at the role of the MLCO and how to be an effective individual in that role.

Course Content

- What is compliance?
- The role of an MLCO

- Duty, objective and responsibility
- The AML/CFT framework in Guernsey
- The regulatory framework in Guernsey including the requirement to appoint an MLCO
- How to be an effective MLCO
- Compliance monitoring framework
- Interacting with the board
- Board reports and the obligation to report
- Outsourcing the MLCO function
- The compliance culture
- Recent developments

Benefits

The course will look at the design and implementation of a compliance monitoring framework, board interaction, how you should report to the board and what information those board reports should contain.

Crucially it will examine how to improve the compliance culture in your organisation and promote a positive attitude towards compliance.

Finally it will cover recent developments in Guernsey with some case studies.

You will leave the course with a renewed enthusiasm for your role, a tool kit of useful information and feeling better equipped to deal with the day to day issues faced by compliance officers. You will also meet other MLCOs and compliance staff and have the chance to chat through any difficult specific cases.
