Length

Full day (09:30-17:00)

Course Overview

This course (previously known as Trust & Company Bookkeeping Level 2) is designed for professionals who are ready to take the next step in trust and company accounting. Whether you've recently qualified as an accountant but lack hands-on experience in the Guernsey trust and company environment, or you've spent years in bookkeeping and want to progress toward preparing full financial statements—this course will bridge the gap.

Building on foundational concepts (including those covered in our Introduction to Trust & Company Bookkeeping | GTA course, delegates will deepen their understanding of trust and company accounting practices, explore the structure and purpose of financial statements via practical examples and workshops and gain practical skills to support accurate and compliant financial reporting.

Course Content

- Preparation of trust financial statements using a practical case study

Flexible learning that works for you

E: admin@gta.gg | T: 224570 | W: gta.gg

- Application of FRS102 to Trust and company financial statements
- Preparation of company financials statements with hands-on guidance and real-world examples
- Accounting for property and investment property in trust and company structures
- Applying key theoretical accounting concepts to everyday scenarios
- Reviewing financial statements through a guided practical case study

Benefits

The objective of this intermediate trust accounting course is to provide you with further knowledge and practical application of trust accounting issues.

On completion of the course, you should feel that you have had the opportunity to practice your accounting skills and increase your knowledge in relation to trust and company accounting.

The course would be of particular benefit to those working in client accounting or studying for STEP and The Chartered Governance Institute IFA qualifications.

Prerequisites

To enrol in this course, delegates must have either:

- Completed Trust and Company Bookkeeping - Level 1 | GTA
- Hold or be working towards a relevant accounting qualification, or
- Equivalent experience in trust and company bookkeeping
